Singapore's weather

Singapore is generally hot to warm and humid all year round, with the temperature on average between 20°C (68°F) to 30°C (86°F). At times even reached 35°C. Humidity is high, at and over the 75% mark.

November and December is the rainy season. June-August is considered to be the best time to visit, but even then it may rain often.

However, most buildings are air-conditioned. For visitors who enjoy the sun and the beach, Singapore is an ideal place for beach lovers, with Sentosa island being at its southernmost point is also an ideal beach getaway location. The hippiest beach on Sentosa is Siloso Beach, which is also where the resort's beach level is located, this beach stretch is aligned with a host of entertainments such as pubs, wavehouse, segway rides etc that awaits.

Activities

A list of activities along Siloso Beach range from beach activities to wave rides, hill rides, for those who like the real outdoors. Pubs and restaurants aligned the beach front for those who prefer to chill out under the sun, performances are lined up during evening for those who prefer plays. All at the convenience of walking distance from the resort.
